Deputy Roth said they removed Suspect Brown from the radio car and they proceeded to walk him about 10 or 15 feet towards his (Roth's) parked radio car. He said Suspect Brown called Ms. [redacted] a bitch and was upset about her calling the police.

Deputy Thames said he was walking on the left side Suspect Brown while Deputy Roth was on Brown's right side. He said suddenly he felt a jerking motion and saw Suspect Brown kicking at Deputy Roth. He said Suspect Brown missed Roth with his first kick. He said Suspect Brown was able to kick Deputy Roth in his right knee/shin area on the second kick. Deputy Thames said he attempted to pull Suspect Brown away from Deputy Roth. He said Suspect Brown continued to kick at Deputy Roth and thinks he struck him at least two more times.

Deputy Thames said they gave Suspect Brown verbal commands to stop fighting and to stop resisting, but he continued to fight with them. He said he pulled Suspect Brown and they (Thames and Roth) took him to the ground. He said Suspect Brown landed on his chest and facial area. Deputy Thames said both he and Roth landed on top of Suspect Brown. Thames said they continued to yell out stop fighting and stop resisting while they were on the ground. He said Suspect Brown continued to fight with them and attempted to raise his body up off the ground. Deputy Thames said he was able to hobble Suspect Brown's feet and that seemed to restrict the movement of his legs. He said they were able to take him into custody without further incident and placed him in Deputy Roth's car. Deputy Thames said he reported his use of force to Sergeant Biehl.
